THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The full text of President Hayes' third annual message is concluded in the Gazette to-day. It is a long document, quite pretentious in some respects, but is regarded as an able and important State paper. It contains some prominent points and significant suggestions, and to accommodate those who have neither the time nor the patience to give the message a careful reading, we will give in an editorial form the chief topics discussed by the Presi-

First. He congratulates Congress on the successful operation of the Resumption scheme, and in this connection states the fact that there has been 40 millions more coin deposited in the Treasury in exchange for legal tender notes than there has been coin paid out for notes redeemed.

Second. The President states that the balance of trade in favor of the United States since July 1, is about 60 millions of dollars, that is, that much gold has been shipped to this country in payment for goods manufactured here and shipped abroad.

Third. The annual amount of interest saved by the refunding operations of the Government since March 1, 1877, is a little over 14 millions of dollars; and the President expresses a good deal of satisfaction that the bonds sold have been quite generally taken in small sums, and are held by a much greater number of our own people than at any other time since Government bonds were Fourth, There have been about 45 millions of the new silver dollars coined, and over 32 millions of them are still in the Treasury unable to find takers. The President therefore thinks the coinage of the new silver dollars should be stopped for the present; and he also urges Congress to refrain from any new legislation on the ascertained to night. double-standard subject, and to let the currency question remain as it is.

Fifth. One of the most important topics discussed by the President is the retirement of the United States notes, on this point he says: "It is my firm conviction that the issue of legal tender paper money based wholly upon the credit of the Goyernment, except in extreme emergency, 19 without warrant in the Constitution, and a violation of sound financial principles." To To retire these flegal tender notes he rcgards as quite necessary as a step to be taken in our progress toward a safe and stable currency which should be accepted as the policy and deity of the Government, and the interest and security of the people. This part of the Message will provoke considerable discussion both in Congress and by the press. A great majority people do not contracting the currency the present time. We are free to express the belief that it would prove a fatal mistake to attempt to contract the currency by the retirement of the legal tenders. 6. The Civil Service question is a hobby with President Hayes, and not withstanding the fact that he has made himself ridiculous in the attempt to carry out his pet policy, he has not lost confidence in the ultimate success of the Civil Service scheme. He believes that competitive examinations for minor offices should be removed from favoritism and political influence, and that places of trust and responsibilshould be given to who are best fitted for the positions regardless of political or other considerations. He wants Congress to take an interest in the Civil Service question, to co-operate with him in making the reform practical, and recommends that it appropriate a sufficient sum of money to pay for a Civil Service Commission.

Seventa, The President appeals to the patriotism of the country to put an end to frau is and outrages in the South, and asks Congress to do what it can to remedy any defect in the laws regulating the exercise of the suffrage in the South, but he fails to recommend or suggest a remedy-

Eighth. He is pretty outspoken against polygamy in Utah, and demands that the law shall be enforced in that Territory, and in order to provide a penalty for the violation of the law, he suggests that all persons indulging in polygamy, be deprived of their citizenship.

Ninth. He favors the enlistment of the full number of 25,000 men in the regular army, besides mere than 3,000 for detached Tenth. The Indian affairs are discussed in a somewhat extended manner, but the President does not suggest a remedy for the murderous outbreaks which frequently occur in the Territories, and cost hundreds of lives and many thousands of dollars. There are other questions of minor imwhich attention 13 called. The document will be found as able and satisfactory as Presidents' messages usually are. They are dry at best, and it requires some pluck to give one of them a careful and intelligent reading.

FOR IRELAND.

A Rousing Mass Meeting in Chicago -The Expressions of Sympathy for the Unfortunates of Ireland.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The mass meeting of citizens, irrespective of nationality, at Mc-Cormick's hall last evening, for the purpose of expressing sympathy with the oppressed people of Ireland in their efforts to obta a the control of their own soil, was, in point of attendance, earnestness, and anthusiasm, all that the most ardent lover of liberty and the most sincere sympathizer with the down-trodden and oppressed could have desired. The hall began to fill before half-past 7, and by a quarter to 8 o'clock every seat in the body of the house, the galleries, and most of those on the platform had been taken, and still the crowd kept pouring in, glad enough to get standing room. Nevan's full band was stationed near the platform, and supplied all the inspiration that could be compressed into the performance of the principal national airs in every well regulated band's repertory. The platform had been reserved of course for the small army of Vice Presidents, the members of the Executive Committee, and the speakers of the evening, and the appearance of the more distinguished among them, such as the Hon. Thomas Hoyne, "Long John" Wentworth, Lieutenant-Governor Shuman, Judge Moore, Judge Moran, Leonard Swett, W. J. Hynes, Colonel Reno. W. K. Sulliyan, Michael Keeley, Simon O'Donnell and others, was sufficient to bring down choked the aisles, and suffered all possible discomfort for the sake of hearing and thousands, unable to enter the building at all, reluctantly returned to their homes.

The case was tried in Chi- The Departments--- The Fishcago a year and a halt ago before Judge Blodgett; rehearing was granted upon newly discovered evidence, and it was then stipulated that the decision here should also apply to the Chicago parties. The decree is now in favor of the patentees, and will oblige all users of the machine to pay a royalty. This was a test case, and the issue was awaited with interest by brewers. It is highly probable that an appeal will be taken to the United States Supreme Court. As the matter stands the patentees may command fortunes on their ingenuity.

WAUKESHA, Dec. 2.—My attention ha been directed to the dispatches from this place, published in your paper Nov. 17th and 20th. The third installment of the award against Mexico under the Claims Commission of July 4, 1868, was duly paid, and has been put in course of distribution in pursuance of the act of Congress providing for the same. This satisfactory situation between the two countries leads me to avticipate an expansion of our trade with Mexico, and an increased contribution of capital and industry by our people to the development of the great resources of that country. I earnestly commend to the wisdom of Congress the provision of suitable legislation looking to the result.

THE CANAL PROJECT. Diplomatic intercourse with Colombia is again fully restored by the arrival of the Minister from that country to the United States. This is especially fortunate in view of the fact that the question of an interoceanic canal has recently assumed an important aspect and is now under discussion with the Central American countries, through whose territory the canal by the Nicaragua route would have to pass. It is trusted that enlightened statesmanship on their part will see that the early prosecution of such a work will largely inure to the benefit, not only of their own citizens and those of the United States, but of the commerce of the civilized world. It is not doubted that, should the work be undertaken under the protecting auspices of the United States, and upon satisfactory concessions for the right of way and its security by the Central American Goyernments, the capital for its completion would readily be furnished from this country and Europe, which might, failing such guarantees, prove maccessable. Diplomatic relations with Chili have also been strengthened by the reception of a Minister from that country. The war between Peru, Bolivia, and Chili still continues. The United States have not deemed it proper convey to all the Governments concerned the assurance that the iriendly offices of the Government of the United States for the restoration of peace upon an honorable basis will be extended in case the belligerents shall exhibit a readiness to accept them. The Secretary of War reports that the War Department estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1881, are $40,380,-428.93, the same being for a less sum of money than any annual estimate rendered to Congress from that Department during a period of at least twelve years. He concurs with the General of the Army in recommending such legislation as will authorize the enlistment of the full number of 25,000 men for the line of the army, ex clusive of the 3,460 men required for detached duty, and therefore not available for service in the field. He also recommends that Congress be asked to provide by law for the disposition of a large number of abandoned military posts and reservations, which, though very valuable in themselves, have been rendered useless for military purposes by the advance of civilization and settlement. He unites with the Quartermaster-General in recommending that an appropriation be made for the construcbuilding for the safe storage of a vast amount of money, accounts, vouchers, claims, and other valuable records, now in the Quartermaster-General's office and exposed to great risk of total destruction by fire. He also recommends, in conformity with the views of the Judge Advocate General, some declaratory legislation in reference to the military statute of limitations, as applied to the crime of desertion. In these several recommendations I concur. The Secretary of War further reports that the work for the improvement of the South Pass of the Mississippi River, under contract with Mr. James B. The course of official conduct on the part of the officers, highly creditable to their fidelity, was advised by the Attorney-General, who informed them. however, that they would necessarily have to rely for their compensation upon the prospect of future legislation by Congress. I therefore especially recommend that immediate appropriation be made by Congress for this purpose. The act making the principal appropriation for the Depart. ment of Justice at previous sessions has uniformly contained the following cause: "And for defraying the expenses which may be incurred in the enforcement of the act approved Feb. 28, 1870, entitled 'An the several States of the United States, and thereof or supplementary thereto. It cannot be expected that more causes can be decided than are now disposed of in its annual session, or that by any assiduity the distinguished Magistrates who compose the Court can accomplish more than is now done. In the Courts of many of the circuits also the business has increased to such an extent that the delay of justice will call the attention of Congress to an appropriate remedy. It is believed that all is done in each circuit which can fairly be expected from its judicial force. The evils arising from delay are less heavily felt by the United States than by private suitors, as its causes are advanced by the Courts when it is seen that they involve the discussions of questions of a public character. The remedy suggested by the Attorney-General is the appointment of addditional Circuit Judges, and the creation of an intermediate Court of Errors and Appeals, which shall relieve the Supreme Court of a part of its jurisdiction, while a larger force is also abtained for the performance of circuit duties. I recommend this suggestion to the consideration of Congress. It would seem to afford a complete remedy, and would involve, if ten additional Circuit Judges are appointed an expenditure at the present rate of salaries of not more than $60,000 a year, which would certainly be small in comparison with the objects to be attained. The report of the Postmaster-General bears testimony to the general revival of receipts of the Post-Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1879, were $30,041,982 86, being $764,465.91 Pass, which, at the beginning of June, than the revenues of the preceding year. The expenditures during the year were $801,vided by the statute and in the event of 209 77 less than in the preceding year. This reduction is to be attributed mainly to the operation of the law passed June 17 1878, changing the compensation of Poststamps sold, to a commission on stamps canceled. The amount drawn from the Treasury on appropriations, in addition to engaged for promptness, skill, and courage the revenues of the Department, was $3, displayed. Address, GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

Affairs, setting forth the present state of our relations with the Indian tribes on our territory, the measures taken to advance progress already achieved by them, will be found of more than ordinary interest. The general conduct of our Indian population has been so satisfactory that the occurrence of two disturbances which resulted in bloodshed and destruction of property 18 all the more to be lamented. The history of the outbreak on the White River Ute Reservation in Western Colorado has become so familiar by elaborate reports in the public press that its remarkable incidents need not be stated here in detail. It is expected that the settlement of this difficulty will lead to such arrangements as will prevent further hostile contests between the Indians and the border settlements in Western Colorado. The other disturbances occurred at the Mescalero Agency in New Mexico, where Victoria, the head of a small band of marauders, after committing er was made for the payment of the fees of many atrocities, being vigorously chased by a military force, made his way across the Mexican border, and is now on a foreign soil. While these occurrences, in which a comparatively small number of their duties without compensation from the Indians were engaged, are most deplorable. Government, taking upon themselves the A vast majority of our Indian population incidental outlays as well as rendering have fully justified the expectations of those who believe that by humane and peaceful influences the Indian can be led to abandon the habits of sayage life, and to develop a capacity for useful and civilized occupations. What they have already accomplished is shown in the pursuit of agricultural and mechanical work. The remarkable success which has attended the experiment of employing as freighters a class of Indians hitherto counted among the wildest and most intractable, the general and urgent desire expressed by them for the education of their children, may be taken as sufficient proof that they will be found capable of accomplishing much more if they continue to be wisely and fairly guided. The Indian policy sketched in the report of the Secretary of the Interior, the object of which is to make liberal provision for the act to amend an act approved May 30, education of Indian youth, to settle the 1870, entitled 'An act to enforce the right Indians upon farm lots in severalty, to of citizens of the United States to vote in give them title in fee to their farms inalienable for a certain number of years, and for other purposes,' or any acts amendatory when their wants are thus provided for to dispose by sale of the lands on their reserappropriation was made for the current uations not occupied and used by them, a year. As no general election of members | fund to be formed out of the proceeds for of Congress occurred, the omission was a the benefit of the Indians, which will gradmatter of little practical importance. Such ually relieve the Government of the exelection will, however, take place during penses now provided for by annual approthe ensuing year, and the appropriation | priations, must commend itself as just and lated to remove those obstructions which tion for the services they may be required | the existence of large reservations presents to perform at such election. The business to the settlement and development of the of the Supreme Court is at present largely | country. I therefore earnestly recommend the enactment of a law enabling the Government to give Indians a title in fee inalienable for twenty-five years to the farm lands assigned to them by allotment. I also repeat the recommendation in my first annual message that a law be passed admitting Indians who can give satisfactory proof of having, by their own labor, supported their families for a number of years, and who are willing to detach themselves from their tribal relations, to the benefit of the Homestead act, and to grant them patents containing the same provision of inahenability for a certain period. The experiment of sending a number of Indian children of both sexes to the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute in Virginia, to receive elementary English education and practical instruction in farming and other useful industries, has led to results so promising, that it was thought expedient to turn over the cavalry barracks at Carlisle, in Pennsylvania, to the Interior Department for the establishment of an Indian school on a larger scale. The school has now 158 pupils, selected from various tribes, and is in full opera-

Arrangements are also made for the education of a number of Indian boys and girls belonging to tribes on the Pacific slope in a similar manner, at Forest Grove, in Oregon. These institutions will commend themselves to the liberality of Congress and to the philanthropic munificence

Last spring information was received of the organization of an extensive movement in the Western States, the object of which was the occupation by unauthorized persons of certain lands in the Indian Territory ceded by the Cherokees to the Government for the purpose of settlement by other Indian tribes. On the 29th of April I issued a proclamation warning all persons against participation in such an attempt, and by the co-operation of a military force the invasion was promptly checked. It is my purpose to protect the rights of the Indian inhabitants of that Territory to the full extent of the Executive; but it would be unwise to ignore the fact that a Territory so large and so fertile, with a population so sparse, and so great a wealth of unused resources, will be found more exposed to the repetition of such attempts as happened this year when the surrounding States were most densely settled, and the westward movement of our population looks still more eagerly for fresh lands to occupy. Under such circumstances the difficulty of maintaining the Indian Territory in its present state will and Mexico to maintain order in that re- from all sources at $32,210,000, leaving a greatly increase, and the Indian tribes indeficiency to be appropriated for out of the habiting it would do well to prepare for such a contingency. I therefore fully approve of the advice given to them by the Secretary of the Interior on a recent occasion to divide among themselves, in severalty, as large a quantity of their lands as they can cultivate, to acquire individual title in fee, instead of their present tribal ownership in common, and consider in what manner the balance of their lands ly promoted and the expenditures could be may be disposed of by the Government readily controlled by the classification of for their benefit. sages are renewed in fayer of enlarging the factlities of the Department of Agriculture. Agriculture is the leading interest and the permanent industry of our people. It is to the abundance of agricultural productions as compared with our home consumption and the largely increased and highly profitable market abroad which we have enjoyed in recent years that we are mainly indebted for our present prosperity as a people. We must look to its continued maintainance for substantial resource. There is no branch of industry in which labor, directed by scientific knowledge, yields such increased production in comparison with unskilled labor, and no branch of public service to which the encouragement of liberal appro priations can be more appropriately extended. The omission to render such aid is not a wise economy, but on the contrary undoubtedly results in the lorges of immense sums annually that might be sayed through well directed effort; by the Government to promote this vital interest. The results already accomplished, with the very limited means heretofore placed at the command of the Department of Agriculture, is an earnest of what may be expected with increased appropriations which will enable it to prosecute more effectively the objects for which it is es tablished. Appropriations are needed for a more complete laboratory, tor the estab-lishment of a Veterinary Division and a Division of Forestry, and for an increase of force. The requirements for these and other purposes indicated in the report of the Commissioner, under the head of "Immediate Necessitics of the Department." will not involve any expenditures of money that the country cannot with propriety now undertake in the interests of agriculture.

It is gratifying to learn from the Bureau of Education the extent to which educational privileges throughout the United States have teen advance a during the year No more fundamental responsibility r. 1 upon Congress than that of devising appropriate measures of first stell aid to education, supplemental to it also on in States and Territories, and in the D rict of Columbis. The wise forether the of the founders of our Government 1 not only lurnished the tree for the support of the Common Eche of systers of the newer States, but led found ations for the main-tenance of the runiversities, of olleges of agriculture and mechanic i Measures in accordance with this flady onal policy for the turther benefit of all these interest and the extension of time advantiges to every portion of the country, it is hoped will receive your favorable consid-

THE CAPITOL LIBRARY.

To preserve and perpetuate the National literature should be among the foremost cares of the National Legislature. The library gathered at the Capitol still remains unproyided with any suitable accommodations for its rapidly increasing stores. The magnitude and importance of the collection increased as it is by the deposits made increased, as it is, by the deposits made under the laws of copyright, by domestic and foreign exchanges, and by the scientific library of the Smithsonian Institute, call for building accommodations which shall be at once adequate and fireproof. The location of such public buildings which should provide for the pressing necessities of the present, and for the vast increase of the Nation's books in the future, is a matter which addresses itself to the discretion of Congress. It is earnestly recommended as a measure which should unite all suffrages, and which should no longer be delayed.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT. The Joint Commission created by the act of Congress of August 2, 1876, for the purpose of supervising and directing the completion of the Washington National monument, of which Commission the progressed as to insure entire success of this part of the work. A massive layer of masonry has been introduced below the original foundation, widening the base, increasing the stability of the structure, and rendering it possible to carry the shart to completion. It is earnestly recommended that such further appropriation be made for the continued prosecution of the work as may be necessary for the completion of as may be necessary for the completion of this National monument at an early day.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. In former messages, impressed with the importance of subject, I have taken occasion to recommend to Congress the adop-tion of a generous policy toward the District of Columbia. The report of the Commissioners of the District herewith ings, an endless variety. A transmitted contains suggestions and recommendations to all of which I carnestly invite your careful attention. I ask your early and favorable consideration of the views which they express as to earnest need of legislation for the reclamation of the marshes of the Potomac and its castern branch within the limits of the city, and for | the repair of the streets of the Capital, heretotore laid with wooden blocks, and by delay rendered almost impassable and a source of immenent danger to the health of its citizens. The means at the disposal of the Commissioners are whelly inadequate for the accomplishment of these important works, and should be supplemented by timely appropriations from the Federal Treasury. The filling of the flats in front of the city will add to the adjacent lands and parks now owned by the United States a large and valuable domain, sufficient, it is thought to reimburse its entire cost, and will also as an incidental result, secure the perminent improvement of the river for the purpose of navigation. The Constitution baying 'nyes'ed Congress with supreme and exclusive jurisdiction over the District of Columbia, its citizens must, of necessity look to Congress alone for all needful legislation affecting their interests, and as the territory of this District is the common property of the peor, le of the United States, who, equally with its resident citizens, are interested in 'he prosperity of their Capital, I cannot doubt that you will be amply sustained by 'he general voice of the country in any measure you may adopt for this ourpose.

I also invite the tavorable consideration of Congress to the wants of the public schools of this District, as exhibited in the courts of the U_ited States. Others have report of the Commissioners. While the purposes are rented, and are in important particulars unsuited for the purposes. The cause of popular education in the District of Columbia is surely entitled grants of the public lands have been made for the endowment of schools and univer-RUTHERFORD B. HAYES. We stand ready to publish in due time the names of the young gents who will receive

- -Trinity church choir of this city, composed of Messrs. Gookins and Conant and Misses Griswold and Josslyn, is doing admirable work under the efficient and conscientious leadership and training of Prof. Titcomb. Seldom does one see a better balanced choir. They render the church service with great taste, expression, and power and show their training.
- The Methodist District & Conference commenced its work this afternoon at Court street church. This evening there will be an address by Rev. T. Clithero on "The Relation of the Church to Childhood." Other speakers will also be present. To-morrow the services will commence at 9 o'clock and continue during the day, the discussions being concerning Sunday school matters:
- -The meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club last evening was devoted to conversation mainly, the first fifteen minutes being given to a review of current events and literature. The Irish uprising was talked over, and the new life of Benedict Arnold. "The Merchant of Venice" was again taken up, and much time was given to a discussion of Prof. Cumneck's renderings of particular parages. The evening closed with the opening study of "The Tempest." This play will be further considered at future meetings. Preparations are being made for a rendition of "The Merchant of Venice" at an early date. Dr. Newman, Miss Ida Harris, Miss Dolly Patten, Mr. Stearns and Captain Baker are to take parts in this.
- -Mr. William Chase, of New Mexico arrived in the city last evening from Chicago. He is a brother of Mrs. J. B. Hyzer. and his father was one of the first settlers in the town of Turtle, having come there at an early date, and after remaining a few months, went to Indiana, and at the end of a year or so returned to Turtle again. Mr. William Chase has not been here before for twenty years. For fifteen years past he has lived in New Mexico, where he has a large ranch, and is extensively interested in sheep and cattle. He is a very pleasant conversationalist, and is so thoroughly acquainted with the country and the people of New Mexico, that one can gain much valuable information from him. Mr. Chase is accompanied by his aunt, from Calais, Maine, who is an old schoolmate of Mrs. Judge Parker.

-Have you bought your ticket for the Juvenile Pinafore Company to-morrow night? The little folk have won so much praise all over the country that they need little further endorsement. To hear fifty trained, youthful voices sing the happy strains of Pinafore, will prove a rare treat indeed. The very name of Haverly is enough to assure everybody that it will be a first-class entertainment, as Haverly never sends out anything poor. It will be a novel sight indeed to see this nursery of singers. We notice that the St. Louis papers give column interviews with the Juveniles, and the Louisville Courier-Journal gives an equally lengthy leading editorial to them, and that is the way they are attracting notice all over the country. It is one of the most striking and speedy successes that ever came from a wise management. The public appreciate a good thing, and this is surely such.

LIVELY SCENE IN THE STREET. Last night there was a disgraceful dis-

urbance on East Milwaukee street, which drew together a large number of sightseers and produced a heavy amount of wordy combat. It seems that Mr. James Van Etta and Mr. Charles Stark iwere disputing in Ellison's salcon about some wrestlers. Istark thought there iwas a fellow in Shopiere, who could throw a certain fellow in Edgerton, and casually offered to bet a $20 note or some other amount, on his pet. Van Etta thought differently, and pulling out some money, -The horses are skating along. Sharpen about $30, wayed it to the breezes, and backed up this claim with this show of greenbacks. Words followed debate the $30 was found to be missing -D. E. Fifield, now of Pewaukee, ar- Some one had nipped it. Of course thought Stark must have taken the money. This stirred up the righteous indignation of Stark, and the contab became so bois terous that a crowd soon gathered expect ing blood and gore. Friends of Van Etta got him to withdraw, assuring him they would secure the money for him, as it had been taken in jest, and after a little, Ellison "doused the glimmers," shoo-ed the crowd out, and peace was somewhat restored. By this time the crowd on the street had augmented, and the spirit of general deviltry had proved catching. Kirb Wheeler and Will Burdick had a little rattle between themselves as a sort interlude to keep up the interest of the crowd between acts. The closing scene was in Frank Richard's saloon, where Van Etta and Stark met again, and the old quarrel about the missing money was revived. Talk grew hot, and the mass meeting then broke up by Stark pushing

the glass, and causing a general howl. Such seems the general outline of the and scrambling, and causing a commotion on the street for an hour or more. There was no great spill of blood, and no arrests. The Marshal was up to the depot, and on his return quiet had been restored, the damage to Richard's saloon had been settled for, but the missing money had not yet been found. Who has it is a imystery: As there were a number in the crowd it is by all means probable that one of them got away with it, and will keep away with it. None of the participants in the affair seem anxious to begin any prosecution, and the trouble will probably never be aired in the courts.

That such a Babel can exist upon our streets without any legal steps being taken to punish the true offenders seems strange enough, but such promises to be the fact, as all seem willing to let the affair end in

MR. A. NEIGER, Taylorville, Pa., writes My mother, an old lady of sixty years, suffered for thirty years with Rheumatism, to such an extent that she was entirely ame. We procured from Messrs. Ludwig Bros., Druggists in Scranton, Pa., a bottle of ST. JACOB'S OIL, used it according to directions, and saw our efforts crowned with perfect success. Mother was relieved.

THE MURDEROUS DOCTOR.

To the Editor. I noticed in your Saturday's paper that the Waupun Times contradicts a statement that I made in a sermon I preached on "Capital Punishment," a tew weeks ago in my pulpit. The statement I made was this-speaking of the number of life members in the State Prison, I said: "One of these is a physician who was sent there for killing his wife. It is said that he put out of the way three of his wives that his appetite tor deprayed lust might be gratified Not long since a friend of mine saw and conversed with him. Said he, 'Doctor, are you not lonesome here?' He answered, 'No, sir, I have a good practice here in my profession. (He is the physician for the Prison.) I never had a better practice. I have plenty to eat and drink, a comfortable bed, have good health. This is my world-I am as happy here as I could be anywhere.' " What I want to say is this: The friend of mine was, at the time he visited Waupun Prison, and conversed with this man, a member of the State Board of Charities and visited the prison, I suppose, officially, and must have known what he was saying. What he said about it was in a public address upon a reform subject, and scores of other people heard him say it and moreover he is a man of strict integrity, and the soul of honor; and I have every reason affair which kept a crowd of men pushing to believe that he told the truth as it was then. Neither he nor I gave the name of the physician, but many seem to think it must have been Duval, at least the Times seems to suppose so. But what does it matter? Is the Waupun Times , hurt? Does that paper, or some one who wrote that little denial, want to use mistakes as an argument against capital punishment? If so, give us a fair chance and we will meet it. I did not suppose that it was the fault of anybody in Waupun. It is the law as it is in Wisconsin that we oppose. No man is more glad than I if it is a truth, that criminals are not put in responsible positions such as physicians, or any other responsible place. They are prisoners. Keep them as such and let shem feel the disgrace of it.

AN OLD SETTLER.

H. SEWELL.

WATERTOWN, Dec. 1-Death has removed another of our old residents from our midst. Samuel Vaux, Esq., died at his home in the First ward this morning, aged about 77 years. The deceased was a native of Engand settled here over thirty years ago. He was had few superiors for skill and taste. Mr. Vaux had been in feeble health for some months, a stroke of paralysis he suffered a tew days ago hastening his death. He leaves a wife, two daughters and two sons to mourn his decease.

DROWNED.

REEDSBURG, Dec. 1-Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, in a mill pond at Baraboo, Henry Cordis, a German 19 years old, a daughter of one Hart, and Sher: I John Yong's daughter, 4 years old were drowned, Cordis shoving those two and his sister, aged 17, on a sled, when the ice broke, letting all in. He succeeded in getting his sister out, but help not coming bocame exhausted and went under. One of the girls' body has not yet been recovered. The sister of Cordia has since died of lockjaw.
